

SheppardMullin

The requested extension of time until January 6, 2021 to submit the stipulation of dismissal is GRANTED.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to close the Motion at ECF No. 107.

SO ORDERED 12/10/2020

December 9, 2020

VIA ECF

Hon. Sarah L. Cave
U.S. Magistrate Judge
U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York
Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse
40 Foley Square
New York, NY 10007

SARAH L. CAVE
United States Magistrate Judge

Re: Precision Medicine Group, LLC, et al. v. Blue Matter, LLC, et al., Case No. 1:20-cv-02974

Dear Magistrate Judge Cave:

This firm represents the plaintiffs, Precision Medicine Group, LLC, PRECISIONadvisors Group, Inc., and Precision Medicine Group Holdings, Inc. (collectively, "Precision" or the "Company") in the above-referenced matter. We write jointly with counsel for defendants Naina Ahmad ("Ahmad") and Jose Jauregui ("Jauregui") regarding Your Honor's order dated November 25, 2020, directing the parties to submit a stipulation of dismissal for Judge Gardephe's approval by today, December 9th.

While the parties are close to executing a final agreement, certain terms which are confidential contain waiting periods required by law which necessitate the parties' request for an extension of Your Honor's original deadline to file a stipulation of dismissal until January 6, 2021.

Thank you for Your Honor's consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Jonathan Stoler
for SHEPPARD, MULLIN, RICHTER & HAMPTON LLP

cc: Counsel for all parties (via ECF)

SMRH:4842-3856-9940.2